No School

There will be no school next week, as the ban from the State Board of Health has not been lifted. Schools can open only under medical supervision, and Tremont and vicinity has not the physicians to spare for this at the present time. No school for so long makes it bad for both teachers and pupils, but under all conditions the school will be concerned.

Jibben, Shields

The marriage of Ben. H. Jibben of Green Valley and Miss M. Shields of Allentown took place this afternoon, October 22, at the residence of the officiating clergyman, Rev. W. Ballenger, in Tremont. The ceremony was a home affair, to be held on Oct. 22, but the illness of both the young people with influenza caused a postponement and change of plans. Following the ceremony a wedding reception was given at the home of the bride. The newly wedded couple left the next day for their future home on a farm near Kenney, De Witt county, followed by the well wishes of their many friends in this section.

Death of Mrs. Smith

Mrs. Frank Smith died at the home of her father in St. Louis last Monday morning after a long illness with

Liberty Loan Subscribers

Below is a list of subscribers to the first, second, third and fourth Liberty Loans. This puts Tremont township over the top and shows that our citizens were put to the real test and proved their loyalty to their government in supporting the cause our boys at the front are fighting for.

Tremont's Gypsies

An article in the museum files tells of Gypsy caravans in Tremont:

"Beginning about 1917, a caravan of six to seven gypsy families would come to Tremont each summer and camp at the Tremont Park. Their arrival caused a great deal of excitement, especially among the children, who had heard tales of gypsies stealing young children. Their stay would be for two or three weeks. This annual event lasted into the 1920s."

The Gypsy people, also called Romany, Ramanichai, or travelers, originated in India and immigrated to the United States along with Hungarians, Croatians, Serbians, and others around the turn of the century. They had a nomadic lifestyle and a rich culture of their own, not easily understood by others.

The Gypsies in the U.S. generally traveled in close-knit groups of five to ten families, sometimes in colorfully painted horse-drawn wagons, or later, by car. They camped in vacant lots, usually on the outskirts of town. They had a loose interpretation of the law. They were known to be peddlers, beggars, and even thieves, though it is very unlikely they ever stole children.

While it is possible they were warmly welcomed in Tremont, it is more likely they were greeted with distrust.
